Keynote Speakers

Judy and Henry Barclay

Judy graduated from the University of Alabama after which she taught elementary school. She transitioned to fulltime mother and volunteer, and later worked with Partners in Policy-Making and the Alabama Department of Education. She has a passion for helping individuals achieve life's best!! Henry is a managing partner of a CPA firm, father and husband of 35 years (to his best friend, Judy). He is a frequent speaker with a passion for helping others achieve their greater goals.

Carol Massanari

During the past 13 years, Carol has been working with numerous clients as a facilitator of organizational development and systemic change, both as staff for the Mountain Plains Regional Resource Center and as a private consultant. She has worked with state departments of education, state mental health agencies, regional providers of adult services for people with disabilities, and private organizations.
